POSITION INFORMATION

Full-time Physical Therapist

Therapeutic Associates-Evergreen Physical Therapy seeks a full-time Physical Therapist. Position offers a competitive compensation package to include salary, medical/dental/vision, generous continuing education, PTO, and 401k/profit sharing. Student loan reimbursement and other bonuses are negotiable. TAI offers one-on-one clinical mentorship and growth opportunities, including potential clinic directorship and eventual company ownership. Ideally seeking a therapist with experience in ortho and manual therapy, but will consider mature, motivated new grad candidates.

TAI-Evergreen PT treats a diverse orthopaedic population and prides itself on high quality customer service – to our patients and their families, our referral sources and all members of our community. We have proudly served residents of the Spokane Valley and beyond for decades. We're involved with a variety of community events throughout the year, including Hoopfest and Spokefest and strongly believe in the promotion of health and wellness to all of our neighbors. Visit www.therapeuticassociates.com for more information.

For more information and/or to apply, send your resume to Lori Dillon, Recruitment Director: ldillon@taiweb.com, 206-241-8488 ext. 2221.

CLINIC INFORMATION

TAI-Evergreen PT is a manual therapy-based, orthopaedic practice with a varied patient population from pediatric to seniors. Our strong commitment to continuing education and supporting specialization includes one-on-one clinical mentorship and regular clinic in-services to expand skills, in addition to each therapist's personal education planning. Specialty programs include ASTYM, Cycle Fit, TMD/TMJ, sports performance enhancement and injury prevention programs. Our philosophy is to provide outstanding customer service and one-on-one patient care.

SPOKANE VALLEY AREA

Spokane Valley is an established community that prides itself on providing residents with a high quality of life, friendly neighborhoods, and excellent schools. With four distinct seasons, the area abounds with a variety of outdoor activities from skiing, hiking and biking in the mountains to swimming, boating and fishing in the many surrounding lakes and rivers. There are also numerous golf courses for all abilities surrounded by beautiful scenery and 260 sunny days each year. Its close proximity to downtown Spokane provides easy access to an expanded variety of activities, shopping, dining, and the arts. This suburb of Spokane is a thriving community with an excellent mix of residential and commercial development. The school system is excellent with a variety of activities for kids. The warm, friendly people make this area an ideal place to live, work, and play.

JEFF BRESNAHAN PT, DPT, CLINIC DIRECTOR

- Director of Evergreen Physical Therapy since 2009
- Awarded Doctorate of Physical Therapy from Ola Grimsby Institute in 2004, with emphasis in Manual Therapy and Exercise
- Received B.S. in Physical Therapy from University of Scranton in 1988
- Experienced with Orthopaedic, Sports Medicine, Pre-/Post-Surgical and Work Injuries since 1988
- Certified Evaluator for Functional Capacity Evaluations (FCE)

Jeff treats patients with any musculoskeletal condition and has a special interest in return to sports and recreational activities, knee and post-surgical rehab, shoulder and scapular dysfunction, spinal pain, and work injuries. He has developed programs for back/core stabilization, ski conditioning and injury rehab/prevention, as well as other customized programs to fit the patient's individualized needs.

Jeff believes the people who live in Spokane, eastern Washington, and northern Idaho are very active, and orthopaedic injuries occur in this lifestyle at all ages. He finds it rewarding to work with patients through their injury to recovery, to see them return to activities important to them, and to see them have less pain. He takes a proactive approach for the patient to train, learn to stay fit, and avoid injury.

Jeff's goal as your physical therapist is to provide a speedy recovery with a better outcome and higher satisfaction. He hopes to create a long lasting relationship with patients so that they will consider him as their therapist of choice for themselves, their family, and their friends. As the Director, Jeff aims to provide you and the community excellent physical therapy services in a compassionate and professional environment.
