LIBERTY LAKE AREA

Although a young city (incorporated in 2001) Liberty Lake is known for its economic vitality, active community service organizations and copious recreational opportunities, including golf, hiking, cycling, skiing and water sports on the nearby lake. Summer park activities include concerts, outdoor movies, parades and picnics. This suburb of Spokane is a thriving community with an excellent mix of residential and commercial development. Homes are to the newer side with variable prices, depending on location. The community strives to achieve quality of life by creating safe, friendly neighborhoods while encouraging a progressive business environment. Its close proximity to Spokane provides easy access to an expanded variety of activities, shopping, dining, and the arts. The warm friendly people make this area an ideal place to live, work and play.

STEVE ALLEN PT, OCS, COMT, FAAOMPT

Steve Allen is a graduate of the University of Southern California in 1977 with an MS in Physical Therapy. He opened Evergreen Physical Therapy in the Spokane Valley in 1979, became a Board Certified Orthopaedic Specialist in 1986 and certified in Orthopaedic Manual and Manipulative Therapy in 1996. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapists, an adjunct faculty member for Eastern Washington University Physical Therapy and faculty instructor for the North American Institute Orthopaedic Manual Therapy. In his own words:

Physical therapy has so much to offer people from all walks of life. It is an amazing field and rich with reward to see clients return to their work and recreation with the combined efforts of their physical therapist and their own effort on a customized exercise prescription. We pride ourselves on being independently owned by physical therapists that dedicate one-on-one time with each patient-client on every visit.
