Eugene enjoys a national reputation as one of the most livable cities in the country. Nestled like a gem between the majestic Cascade Mountains and rugged Oregon coast, Eugene is that rare kind of place where small town charm and big city sparkle mesh perfectly to form a real community. Eugene offers a wide variety of activities for all interests, including skiing, rafting, biking, running, swimming, along with a wide variety of parks and gardens, and a number of cultural opportunities. For the sports fan, Eugene is home to the Oregon Ducks and is considered the Track Capital of the USA. The four seasons here provide an opportunity to have difference experiences year round. This family friendly community offers a choice of high quality public and private schools with many youth activities including KidsSports, YMCA and AYSO. The Eugene area offers many choices for affordable housing for renters and home owners. It also offers a variety of churches and community groups.

DAVID DOWD PT, MS, CLINIC DIRECTOR

David earned his BS in Biology from State University of New York at Cortland in 1993. He spent the next 6 years operating a personal training business and still stays active in the field. To supplement the knowledge of exercise, David received his Masters of Science in Physical Therapy from California State University at Long Beach and has specialized in orthopedic physical therapy ever since. His specialty interests include resistance training, post surgery, sports rehab, and manual therapy. In his personal time, David enjoys hiking, backpacking, canoeing, music, and spending time with his wife and two daughters.
