BURBANK AREA

Providence Saint Joseph Medical Center (PSJMC) is located in the Media District of Southern California and is surrounded by Disney, Warner Bros., and NBC Studios. Burbank is a well-established community in the East San Fernando Valley and serves a large customer base. There is easy access to all major freeways and Burbank is also on the Metro Link path with a free shuttle provided to PSJMC. We are close to Dodger Stadium, the Studios, shopping, dining, and entertainment. Beach and mountain activities are within 30 minutes. Affordable housing (according to CA standards) is available in the surrounding communities - all within close proximity to area schools, parks, and community recreation facilities. Public Schools in our region do well on national exams and many are recognized for their academic and athletic programs. Families can find many outstanding student activities through our local Parks and Recreation, YMCA, AYSO and other programs. There are many established church and community programs for families of all denominations.
